

NADIA KHALIDI, Instructor

Nadia graduated in 2019 with her BFA in Dance Performance Magna Cum Laude at Wichita State University (on scholarship) where she joined Wichita Contemporary Dance Theatre on tour in Veracruz, Mexico, and had the opportunity to work with choreographers Darrell Grand Moultrie, Charlotte Boye-Christensen, and recently Jammie Walker of Jessica Lang Dance. In the past, she has trained with ABT, OKC Ballet, Houston METDance, Alonzo King LINES Ballet, Regina Klenjoski Dance Company, Thodos Dance Chicago, NobleMotion Dance, and Big Muddy Dance Company.

She had the joy of performing with Ballet Wichita as a soloist and principal from 2008-2016, Alithea Mime Theatre, Wheat State Dance Collective, and Regina Klenjoski Dance Company. She joined the staff of Midwest Dance Mechanix in 2019 and also teaches Physical Education at the Wichita Montessori School. Many thanks to her entire family, Jill Landrith, and the faculty at WSU for helping her become the dancer she is today! Let's dance!
